Mr Edward Robinson

Northampton, June 17, 1842.

Sir:

George Robinson having petitioned for the benefit of the Bankrupt Law, a meeting of his Creditors will be held in this place on Friday, the 24th inst., at 9 A. M., for the purpose of devising means to effect, in the shortest time and to the best advantage, a disposition of the property of said Robinson, and to save the delay ~~and~~ expense & sacrifice that ~~will~~ be necessary under the Bankrupt Act. It is hoped that all the Creditors will be present, or that they will authorise some one to act for them, and give such individual full power (in writing) to agree to a discharge of said Robinson, if the Creditors shall think best to do so, on his putting all his property into their hands.

In behalf of the Creditors.

W. H. STODDARD.
JOSEPH LATHROP.
B. E. COOK.
W. A. ARNOLD.
WINTHROP HILLYER.
SAMUEL PLANT.

The creditors in N. Y. are yourself
